

Purpose of form

The form is optional and it may be used in conjunction with the Child's Questionnaire, Form 04AF019E, to obtain information about the applicants for the purpose of completing an assessment of the family. The form gathers information about the parent's background, personality, education, employment, marital relationship, and parenting philosophy.

This form is not used in place of face-to-face interview.

Instructions

One form may be completed by each adoptive parent applicant. The form is given to the adoptive applicant during the assessment process.

Routing

A copy of each set of questionnaires is filed with the adoptive family resource assessment.
