

Purpose of form

Form 04IL003E, Independent Living Youth Exit Interview, is completed by youth two months prior to exiting OKDHS or Tribal custody in order to gather information regarding the youth's experience in care. This form also allows youth to suggest ways to make Child Welfare better.

Instructions

Your name: Self-explanatory.

Your age: Self-explanatory.

Your race: Self-explanatory.

Your sex: Self-explanatory.

Case name: Enter case name.

Case number: Enter KIDS case number.

Type of custody: Enter OKDHS or Tribal.

Your current grade in school: Self-explanatory.

Are you currently employed? Self-explanatory.

If yes, where are you working? Youth enters name and address of employer.

Where are you living now? Youth checks the appropriate choice for his or her current living situation.

Do you have children? Self-explanatory.

Do your children live with you? Self-explanatory.

If no, where does your child(ren) live? Youth enters the name and address of the child(ren)'s current caretaker.

What services did you receive while you were in OKDHS or Tribal custody? Youth checks all the services he or she received.

What do you see yourself doing in three years? Youth provides a narrative response.

If you ran Child Welfare, what three things would you do to make Child Welfare better? Youth enters three suggestions for improving Child Welfare.

May we contact you from time to time to see how you are doing? Self-explanatory.

Your address when you leave care and telephone. Youth enters the address and telephone number where the youth will be living when he or she exits care.

Signature: Youth signs and dates the form.

Routing

Original is filed with Form 04IL005E (DCFS-107), Independent Living Incentive Payment Claim Form, for incentive payment.

Copies: Youth
CW file