

Help During Crisis

OKDHS
Volunteer
Chaplaincy Service

members with a giving and caring spirit the special spiritual and emotio their families when stress o
here with strength and c
with the challenges tha

The Chaplaincy Program is here for you.

Role of the Chaplain:

Our Chaplains are committed to caring for the special needs of our staff and their families through a presence of compassion. They are dedicated to helping people find comfort, hope and strength in trying times.

Contact Information

A chaplain is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. To access these services during office hours, please contact:

Chaplaincy Committee

telephone (405) 522-1633

After Hours, call: (405)323-2155

The Chaplaincy Team

is comprised of individuals who provide support when you are dealing with situations such as:

- Death of employee or of family members
- Debriefing sessions for crisis situations
- Assistance and comfort in time of disasters
- Hospitalization of employees or family members
- Dealing with personal pain and trauma
- Handling your or a family members serious illness
- Support after a workplace accident

Confidentiality

All information is kept strictly confidential.

Our Mission: The Chaplaincy Program responds to the needs of Oklahoma Department of Human Services employees and their families who are in crisis by providing interdenominational care-oriented services.

OKDHS Volunteer Chaplaincy Service

Telephone: (405) 522-1632
After Hours, call: (405) 323-2155
e-mail: volchaplains@okdhs.org

Oklahoma
Department of Human Services

OKLAHOMA DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES